

Experience the holidays in Colonial Williamsburg

COLONIAL WILLIAMSBURG CHRISTMAS

FEATURING WASHINGTON, DC

7 DAYS • 7 MEALS

Catch the Spirit of Christmas Past in Our Nation's Capital and Colonial Williamsburg

Join us on a special departure of our Washington, DC and Williamsburg program where we enjoy the holiday magic of the season while learning of our country's early years and the spirit of the patriots who instilled us with freedom and democracy.

The largest living history museum in the country and one of America's most popular attractions, Williamsburg is a must for every history buff. In Williamsburg, Christmas traditions have been handed down for generations. Hear the wondrous sounds of holiday carolers and see the bright candles and colorful display of holiday decorations in this Colonial celebration. To give you a real feel for the richness and warmth of Colonial lifestyle, you'll enjoy a traditional holiday dinner at a historic tavern.

Experience the sights and sounds of our Nation's Capital and its brilliant holiday light display. From the White House Christmas Tree to the Capitol Building and Union Station, the city is aglow in seasonal lighting. The aroma of traditional holiday food fills Washington's Mount Vernon estate, which is decorated with dozens of Christmas trees.
